Foreign Correspondence

The Foreign Correspondence Club aims to build human relations between the boys and girls of all lands. Through letters, jokes, stories, and exchanging of gifts, each member practices toleration and cooperation and finds himself becoming a better American as he learns how much better is his lot in a democracy. This club is one of the younger clubs, having been in our high school for only two years.

The club has an International Charter and is organized under the name "Fuerstly Folks of Frankfort."

One hundred twenty six students belong, and letters go out to twenty nine countries.

The officers for this year are: President, George Schimmel, Vice-President, David Osterhoff, Secretary, Jack Scheid, Treasurer, Judy Kirkpatrick. Mr. Farrell is the sponsor.

Row 4 Marjanna Burns, Sally Zerfas, Judy Manning, Bonnie Henson, Kathleen Crutchfield, Barbara Phillips.

The Staccato Club is a music club for girls, sponsored by Miss Nixon. Its purpose is to develop music appreciation in the school.

Each year the club sponsors an annual spring formal dance, the "Bunny Hop." The club is limited to 35 members, and in order to become a member one must be enrolled in a music class. The members are then given the opportunity to perform individually and to develop their talents.

The officers for the year were: Betty Jo Gumm, President, Joan Behr and Beverly Hood, Vice-Presidents, Dorothy Larimore, Secretary, Ann McDonald, Treasurer.

This was the second year the Crescendo Club has existed. Much advancement was made this year. Among the activities this year was a dance after the sectional basketball tournament, a new and better constitution, a week of initiation and formal initiation. The club was led during the year by the following officers: President, Larney Robison, Vice-Presidents, Phil Thornton and Hershe Lewis, Secretary, Verrill Myers, Treasurer, Dick Paul. This club was organized to promote better feeling of music. All boys taking music in High School are eligible. Miss Inez Nixon and William Kleyla were the sponsors.

Richard Eugene Stine, a senior, passed away Friday November 5 at his home. He had been ill for two years.

Dick, with his many talents, was an outstanding student in his class. He was a member of the National Honor Society, vice-president of the Hi-Y, member of the Cauldron staff, Forensic Club, Math Club, "F" Club, Latin Club, and president of his junior class. Dick was also prominent in football, basketball, and track.

Mr. Wootruff said, "Dick's talents in both curricular and extra-curricular activities and was especially active and skilled in athletics. His attitude toward his fellow man and life in general was such that had he lived, he would have been a leader in his community."
